

Criteria used for the CCIOG database – explanatory Codebook

Name	Name of the specific organization or project
Location	City in which the organization or project is located
Founding year	Year in which the organization or project was founded
Website	Direct Link to the organization's or project's website
Organization/Project type	Civil society: non-profit, non-governmental or charity organization Government: The organization or project is government run Media: The organization or project is owned by a media company Academia: initiative is part of a university or academic institute
Funding	Source of the organization's or project's income
Terminology	The exact terms used by the organization or project to describe its purpose, or the influence that it wants to counter.
Focus	Main topics that the organization or project focuses on
Description	Main activities of the organization or project, according to publicly available information
Connections/Collaborations	Already existing relations to similar organizations or projects
Additional Information	Important information that does not fit in any other criteria